

Winter Academy on International Arbitration
“EXPLORING CENTERPIECES:
CORE CONCEPTS OF INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION”

17–30 January 2022 | Online

This year the Academy is dedicated to the pillars upon arbitration is based, equipping the attendees with the knowledge and practical tools for building comprehensive legal arguments. The lectures will be taught by the eminent foreign and Russian practitioners featuring among others:

Jan Paulsson

Three Crowns LLP, co-founder
Fundamentals of Arbitration

Noah Rubins QC

Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP
The Arbitrator's Duty of Disclosure

Bernard Hanotiau

Hanotiau & van den Berg
Multi-party Arbitration

Lord (Peter) Goldsmith QC, PC

Debevoise & Plimpton LLP
Advocacy and Effective Presentation

Sarah Z. Vasani

CMS
Declaratory Relief in Arbitration

Manuel Penades Fons

King's College London
Cross-jurisdictional Approach to Bankruptcy (General Issues)

James Castello

King & Spalding
How Arbitral Interim Measures Came Into Their Own

Patrick Taylor and Gavin Chesney

Debevoise & Plimpton LLP
Cross-jurisdictional Approach to Bankruptcy (UK)

Jeffrey Waincymer

Independent Arbitrator, Mediator,
International Trade and Investment Lawyer
Evidence: Principles, Standards and Practical Recommendations

Leonid Kropotov

DLA Piper
Cross-jurisdictional Approach to Bankruptcy (Russia)

Apart from theory, the participants will have an opportunity to apply the acquired skills before the distinguished panel of arbitrators during the moot court.

The program is non-exhaustive and may be subsequently amended.

The Academy will be held in English.

Requirements: fluency in English and interest in dispute resolution. Experience, relevant internships and participation in moot courts may be also considered.

Participation fee: 200 EUR paid upon successful enrollment

Deadline for applications: 31 October 2021

Registration is available here